

I am writing in regards to K-Love radio station as it provides a very important community service for our family and others. We are able to find out about community events for our area that we would otherwise not receive. The music played on this station and the community events announced are wholesome enough for our entire family to appreciate. K-LOVE is a station that we can all listen to appreciate at the same time. Please keep K-LOVE on the air.